

Directions to Hefner Museum of Natural History:

**Numbers correspond to the campus map attached with the email:

Visitors driving to Miami need to park at the North Campus Garage (#103) located below the Engineering Building (#43) on your map.

From the south, take US 27 N to Oxford. US 27 N becomes Patterson Ave. Continue straight for the next three lights at Patterson/Chestnut, Patterson/Spring, and Patterson/High Street. Turn left at the first 4-way stop onto Withrow. North Campus Parking Garage will be on your left.

From the north, take US 27 S into Oxford, which becomes High Street. Turn left onto Patterson Ave. Turn left at the first 4-way stop onto Withrow. North Campus Parking garage will be on your left.

Garage Information:

There is a $1.50 minimum parking fee for the first hour. It is .50 for each additional hour. These rates are subject to change. At the entrance to the parking garage, push the button to obtain a ticket to enter the parking garage. Park on lowest level- red (P1), second level-yellow (P2), or top level- blue (P3).

Remember the floor where you parked. Visitors take the elevator to Ground Floor, exit the building at the glass doors, and walk across High Street. Keep walking straight to Upham Hall (#143), which will be on the right at the bend of the horseshoe walking path past Laws Hall (#75). Hughes Hall (#67) will be to your left. Hefner Museum is located in Upham Hall on the 1st floor, Rm 100.

When leaving:

In the Engineering Building (#43), take the elevator to your level. To exit the parking garage, cash may be paid on the second floor, P2 (yellow) parking level, at the kiosk located outside the elevator. Credit card is accepted at the exit of the parking garage.
